CHRIS TATUM OF WAIKIKI BEACH MARRIOTT RESORT & SPA NAMED GENERAL MANAGER OF THE YEAR
BY MARRIOTT INTERNATIONAL

HONOLULU, HAWAII – Chris Tatum, general manager of the 1,310-room Waikiki Beach Marriott Resort & Spa (www.marriottwaikiki.com) was recently presented with the coveted “2007 Marriott International General Manager of the Year Award” at this year’s annual full-service general managers conference in San Francisco. Mr. Tatum was pleasantly surprised to learn of the honor.

“The award represents the outstanding efforts of the entire team at the Waikiki Beach Marriott Resort & Spa. I am very proud and honored to receive such a prestigious award on behalf of all of our associates,” said Mr. Tatum.

The award is given to a general manager who has demonstrated exemplary and courageous leadership, made extraordinary contributions to business and serves as a role model for professional expertise, innovation and high achievement.

“Chris is well-deserving of the award and we whole-heartedly congratulate him,” said Ed Hubennette, area vice president of Japan, Hawaii and the South Pacific. “This is certainly a milestone in his 26-year career with Marriott International and he is highly regarded among his colleagues, the company and the hotel owners.”

Under Mr. Tatum’s leadership, he was able to execute an ambitious business plan that focused on RevPar growth and increased revenues. He was also praised specifically for improving areas in guest satisfaction and fostering goodwill in the community through Marriott’s Spirit to Serve Our Communities corporate program.

He was named general manager of Waikiki Beach Marriott Resort & Spa last March. Prior to relocating, he was at JW Marriott Ihilani Resort & Spa.
